Mini House is our residential treatment facility for adult women with substance use disorders. The program provides care to adult women, including pregnant and parenting women with one or two young children (less than 6 years). Mini House offers 31 beds in a home-like setting for women to receive therapeutic mental health services, substance abuse treatment and case management. The treatment program consists of 180 days of substance abuse and prevention intervention as well as extensive daily exposure to recovery principles throughout program activities that are geared towards teaching women how to meet life challenges while remaining free from drugs and alcohol.

Depending on every patient’s needs, the length of stay varies and the treatment facility is able to provide services such as: Trauma-informed evidence based substance abuse counseling and treatment, Mental health services, 12 Step meetings, HIV testing, Domestic Violence Workshops, Process and support groups, Parenting classes, Anger management classes, UA drug testing, and Intensive case management.

MINI HOUSE ALSO OFFERS:

Daily structured activities to assist in developing daily routines that promote a healthy lifestyle and recovery:

- Morning yoga and Exercise
- Groups and Counseling
- Group outings
- Free time for leisure and playing with their children

REFERRALS TO SERVICES INCLUDE:

- Medical Care
- Housing
- Legal Aid
- Social Service Programs
- Career Assistance and more

Peer based mentoring is available to women in recovery, this service encourages women to meet the challenges that come with recovery, encourage self-disclosure and trust, and empower women to build essential skills for a healthy life and sobriety.

MINI 12 STEP HOUSE FOR WOMEN & WOMEN WITH CHILDREN WHO ARE EXPERIENCING HOMELESSNESS

- In 2016, Mini House provided care to 94 women with 82% successfully completing the six-month program
- 82% identified as Hispanic or Latina
- 6% identified as Black or African American
- 72% of the residents were between ages 18-25
- 20% were between ages 26-30
- 100% of the women served were low-income
- Mini House is located at 303 E. 52nd Street in Los Angeles, where it has served the community since 1978
