JWCH INSTITUTE

Get informed. Get involved. Get tested.

Research shows communities of color are disproportionately affected by COVID-19.

WHO:

Wesley Health Centers (JWCH Institute) has been selected to participate in a national research study to understand the impact of COVID-19 on racial minorities and underserved communities. Join the thousands of others who have participated in this study to inform current research and help address health disparities in our community.

WHAT:

We are offering free COVID-19 PCR and antibody testing to confirm current and previous infection as part of a national study to better understand the impact of COVID-19.
